This nomination is an opportunity for you to show others why this individual excels and should serve as a model for others to follow. Your nomination will be reviewed by the CARA Board and will be scored based on how creative and thorough you are in your narrative description in answer to the questions below. Narrative may be up to 2 pages in length.

Nominee must be a member in good standing of the Colorado Parks and Recreation Association and CARA section.

The CARA Professional of the Year will be announced at the CPRA Annual Conference Awards Banquet, Thursday, September 23, 2010 at Beaver Run Resort in Breckenridge.

In two pages or less, please answer the following about the nominee:

- 1. Why do you believe this individual is deserving of this recognition?
- 2. How have they contributed to the overall success of CARA?

While not required, feel free to include any other specific information that could assist the CARA Board in making the determination of this award. All items must be submitted electronically along with nomination form and may include:

- Brochures, fliers, articles outlining nominee, service, project or program

Deadline for submissions: CARA Meeting on August 18, 2010

Please return nomination form and all supporting documentation electronically to:
